

Performing the 360

Friday, 07 March 2008

As players get more and more comfortable dribbling the ball, they can then begin to work on moves that will help them beat a defender. Check out this video of the world great Zidane using a 360 move to beat defenders.

As players get more and more comfortable dribbling the ball, they can then begin to work on moves that will help them beat a defender. When a dribbling move it used at the appropriate time, it can often be hard to dispossess the dribbler. Check out this video of the world great Zidane using a 360 move to beat defenders.
